BURGESS PARK
spring 2017 WILD BY NATURE SEASON

INTO THE NIGHT
SATURDAY 25th MARCH
8pm - 9.30pm
View the London night sky in the company of Valentine Seymour & Alice Sheppard from University College London, celebrate 'Earth Hour', and measure light pollution. Look through a telescope, and listen to the sounds of the night. Meet at the barbecue area, on the south side of the lake (near the Sports Centre). FREE event. More information/register at Eventbrite/'Dark Sky Activities' event.

INTO THE NIGHT

LAKE LIFE
SATURDAY 8th APRIL
11am - 12.30pm
Taking a closer look at the wealth of wildlife that calls the lake home. With a London Wildlife Trust expert on hand, learn about the many species we'll discover and record. Bring your camera or sketchpad, and look out for the six "indicator species" of Burgess Park. Meet by the bridge on the south side of the lake (near the Sports Centre).
A drop-in, family-friendly, FREE event.

FUN FOX BREAKFAST
SATURDAY 13th MAY 5.30am-8am
Foxes are most active by night, so at 6am they will be making their way back home to sleep. By mid-May, their cubs will be old enough to come out to meet their parents on their return, so with luck and patience, we may see them playing together. Glengall Wharf Garden from 5.30am. The gates will be shut from 6.10am onwards to avoid latecomers disturbing the foxes.
Sylvia Myers from London Wildlife Trust will be giving a talk about foxes, followed by a continental breakfast.
Please book through Eventbrite. £5 refundable on attendance, donation to cover cost of breakfast on the day please.
This event is for adults and children over 12 only.
