Volunteer Role	When	Contact
Researchers Join a volunteer team of researchers to find out more about WWI archives and how to undertake research. Undertake research and write it for the exhibition and website. Training will be provided on writing and archive activity. Find your own topic of interest or help with themes already identified.	August September Please attend at least one of the briefing sessions (list on the website Aug/Sept). Other research and writing time is flexible and volunteers can do as little or as much as they want.	John Whelan: whelanjohnwalworth@gmail.com 07535 413884
Stewards Depending on the event the role will vary but could include: checking tickets, explaining about the programme of events, helping out with children/family events, handing out information and escorting people around events.	October All our events in October will need stewards – you can volunteer at one or more events. Please commit to at least two hours as a minimum.	friendsofburgesspark@gmail.com Susan Crisp 07743093444
Comms/media Help promote the Zeppelin 1917 activities and events. This will be across a range of media and a wide range of tasks; putting up posters, designing flyers and online media, posting on Facebook and preparing tweets. We want to get a team of people involved.	Aug/Sept/October. EG. A couple of hours one week to put up posters or over several weeks to promote activities.	friendsofburgesspark@gmail.com Susan Crisp 07743093444
Exhibition Help prepare the exhibition. This will involve preparing the material and then putting the exhibition boards together and hanging the exhibition.	Late September early October. Times and details to be arranged.	friendsofburgesspark@gmail.com Susan Crisp 07743093444
